

Can you afford to leave your next inspection to chance?

Can you afford to leave your next Care Home Inspection to chance? With changes to the processes proposed by CQC relating to Factual Accuracy Checks, it is vital that when the inspector calls operators are ready to showcase their home and get the best possible outcome first time. Given the financial and reputational damage which can occur with a poor inspection report. Swift Management Services Limited have a range of services to help providers prepare for inspections and to stay ready throughout the year. Why not see how we can help.
